

“After a disaster, families need to make water safe by themselves, at home or in shelters, to protect themselves from disease.”

Add chlorine to water and wait for 30 minutes before drinking.

If you do not have chlorine, boil water for one minute.

If water is not clear, filter the water using thick cotton cloth before you add the chlorine.

Keep the water in clean and closed containers.